

Grantwriting Resources

The following are resources for people who want to know more about grantwriting as a form of fundraising for nonprofits. These organizations also offer a lot of valuable information about fundraising in general.

The Foundation Center

According to its website, the Foundation Center is “the most authoritative source of information on private philanthropy in the U.S.” The website is easy to navigate and dense with resources. The center also offers online courses that are reasonably priced, such as “Grantseeking Basics for Nonprofit Organizations” for $39.95.
